GETTING TO THE MEMO

The Memo Arts Centre is situated in Barry, near the Waterfront Development and Holton Road.

We have our own on-site car park, with designated disabled parking bays. There is also on street parking around the venue on Gladstone Road and St Pauls Avenue. We are easily accessible by train and bus. Barry (0.7 miles) and Barry Docks (0.6 miles) are the nearest train stations, both a ten minute walk away from us. Bus routes from Cardiff and the surrounding areas are frequent. There is a bus stop within 30 metres of the venue (Cardiff Bus routes 93, 94B, 96 and 98). There is another bus stop a few minutes away at Barry Civic Offices with additional bus services (Cardiff Bus routes 93, 94, 94B, 95, 96, 96A, 97, 98 and 100)

You can find more detailed directions to the venue here; <https://www.memoartscentre.co.uk/find-us/>

BEFORE THE SHOW

Please arrive at the Memo no more than 15 mins before the show starts. Upon arrival you need to register with our Memo volunteer staff at the Cenotaph entrance at the Memo. On arrival we will give you guidance on where to stand, point out the sanitiser station and where the toilets are. You will be able to keep any pushchairs and/or any other personal items with you. Please prepare to be stood outside by dressing up warm as there will be no heating or overhead cover provided for the audience.

FACILITIES

There are a small number of toilets, including baby changing facilities, in the Cenotaph Foyer available for audiences to use. We do however encourage audiences to use the toilet before they leave the house in order to help us limit the amount of people using the facilities on site. Please note that these are inside a public space so all adults (except those who are exempt) will need to wear a face covering as per Welsh Government regulations.

DURING THE SHOW

The fun experience will last 20 minutes in total.

The performance will take place outside. It will be outside the Memo, in the front of the Cenotaph memorial opposite the Cenotaph entrance.

You and your family will be placed in a holding area on arrival and then allocated a marked standing position, where you will remain throughout the performance. These areas will be placed at least 2m apart from any other audience members and from performers at all times.

Audience members will be asked to stand for the duration of the performance (20 mins in total) There are no seated positions, however if you or a member of your household has access requirements, please email boxoffice@memoartscentre.co.uk and we will do our best to accommodate any specific requirements.

This performance will be presented in a relaxed format, but will include stage lighting, music and sound effects, although no loud bangs or strobe lighting. We're really keen to encourage your family to respond however you like and if, for whatever reason, any of your family become unsettled or upset and you would like to move away from the performance area, you are welcome to return to the front of the Memo and come back as and when you and they are ready.

This highly visual show will only include a small amount of spoken word. Deaf and hard of hearing audience members will be given a handout to explain this audio.

AFTER THE SHOW

At the end of HOOF! experience, you will be asked to move away from the performance area and leave the site.

We would love you to give us your honest feedback on your experience by sharing your comments on social media using the hashtag #HOOF and you can tag us and the Memo on Twitter or Instagram using @TheatrIolo / @BarryMemo or on Facebook.com/TheatrIolo / Facebook.com/BarryMemo.

It would also be amazing if you could complete a very short post show survey that will be emailed to you following the performance. The survey will also be available on our website and social media channels.
